Terms and Conditions of Membership

All members must:

- Abide by the Principles of the u3a movement.
- Always act in the best interests of the u3a and never do anything to bring the u3a into disrepute.
- Abide by the terms and conditions of the constitution.
- Treat fellow members with respect and courtesy at all times.
- Comply with and support the decisions of the elected committee.
- Advise the committee of any change in your personal details.

Upminster u3a is affiliated to the u3a movement as administered by the Third Age Trust. All u3a's are based on the principle that members share their knowledge and experience with other members in mutual interest groups for the benefit of all members. Everyone is equal: there are not teachers and students nor organisers and participants.

Upminster u3a members form a wide range of mutual interest groups and everyone is encouraged to participate and contribute their life experience to broadening the knowledge of their fellow members and to running Upminster's u3a. The setting up of new mutual interest groups or the expansion of existing groups is a key feature of Upminster u3a's continued development and you are invited to let us know how you might contribute to Upminster u3a below.
